

Equality and Diversity Policy

Sue Carrette Training & Consultancy believes that equality of treatment for all is a basic human right and actively opposes all forms of unfair and unlawful discrimination.

Sue Carrette Training & Consultancy recognizes that many individuals and communities can experience unlawful and unfair discrimination on a wide range of grounds including:

- Age
- Disability (both 'seen' and 'unseen')
- Race or ethnicity
- Language
- Gender (including transgender and transexual identity)
- Sexual orientation (lesbian, gay, bisexual and heterosexual)
- Relationship or marital status
- HIV status
- Social or economic background
- Faith or religious belief
- Physical appearance
- Political opinions

Sue Carrette Training & Consultancy will take steps to ensure that:

1. The development and delivery of all consultancy and training services gives due consideration to difference and diversity, and that these services are delivered using approaches which are inclusive and supportive, and within which discrimination can and will be appropriately challenged.
2. Training and consultancy services are accessible to all who wish to use them.
3. Associate Consultants and other individuals working with, or for Sue Carrette Training & Consultancy are fully aware of this Equality and Diversity Statement and the requirement to deliver services within this context.
4. All clients are fully aware of this Equality and Diversity Statement
